

The Legacy of International Criminal Tribunals in Africa

A complimentary non-CLE program proudly sponsored by Norton Rose Fulbright (South Africa)
and presented by the ABA Section of International Law,
Africa Committee

In cooperation with the African Association for International Law

Monday, June 17, 2013
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM US EDT

By teleconference only

REGISTER NOW

This is a teleconference panel interview on the legacy of the International Criminal Court, the UN International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, the Special Court for Sierra Leone, the Extraordinary African Chambers of Senegal, and other international and hybrid criminal tribunals in and concerning African countries.

Host:

Adejoke Babington-Ashaye, Co-Chair, Africa Committee, ABA Section of International Law

Speakers:

Ambassador Stephen Rapp, Ambassador-at-Large for War Crimes Issues at the State Department Office of Global Criminal Justice

Hon. Justice Aminatta L.R. N'gum (Gambia), UN Mechanism for International Criminal Tribunals (UNMICT)

Moderator:

Anne Bodley, Member, Africa Committee, ABA Section of International Law

A limited number of questions will be entertained by email during the teleconference to the moderator at abodley@sondhiwilliams.com.

Registration Rates:

This program is sponsored by Norton Rose Fulbright at no charge to participants
There is limited capacity for this event, so please register as soon as possible

American Bar Association

Section of International Law

740 15th Street, NW • Washington, DC 20005 • 202-662-1660

intlaw@americanbar.org - www.americanbar.org/intlaw